Stress eating?

When you are stressed, your body releases cortisol, which increases appetite. Break the cycle of stress eating by reducing stress, connecting with others and caring for yourself.

Learn more healthy habits at sanfordhealthplan.com/wellness.

SANFORD HEALTH PLAN

168-595-789 12/21